

Community Spirit Lacking — Chamber

Communications, apathy and future planning by the city were problems uncovered at the Chamber of Commerce's "Project Idea" luncheon held Monday at the Upland Inn.

Some 50 people gathered for a brief business meeting and then divided into small buzz sessions to focus on projects that should be undertaken by the chamber for 1969-70.

In the summary of ideas presented, some of the problems listed were: completion of the sign ordinance revision, lack of communication, and need for a balance of industrial, commercial and residential land use.

It was felt too much delay has been made with sign revisions and that it is time to come up with definite proposals and action, the group said. (The Sign Review Committee appointed by the city council has met since last May in drafting proposals for change. Three members of the chamber are on the committee.)

The group noted that there seemed to be a gap in communications between the city and the businessmen on all levels.

A need for a balanced community of industry-commerce and residence usage is all-important for a good tax base and not just for any one aspect, the group noted. The concern was for the so-called "bedroom community" label hung upon Upland and especially the Alta Loma area now giving the city competition in building of houses and the offer of lower taxes.

Future planning came in for discussion with better use of land, better balance of industry, commercial and residential, with building of lower cost housing in the civic center area to attract older citizens.

The planning for the two freeways, San Bernardino and Foothill, which will criss-cross the city, and the north and south carrier streets which will need to be widened and developed for heavy traffic use was also discussed.

Finally, the group voiced the

'Let's Be Friends' Mike Rossitter Plea

"I am interested and always have been in the chamber," Councilman Ronald Rossitter told the Chamber of Commerce members at the general meeting held Monday noon. He was guest at the chamber "Project Idea" meeting held at the Upland Inn.

Continuing, he said, "In the city council you have a friend. We are not trying to put anything over on you; we are your servants. We make mistakes, and so does the chamber, and we seek a closer working relationship between us."

He went on to say that in this city we are able to have goals and values and are "fortunate to have men of courage."

He mentioned the difficult task of reviewing the sign ordinance as a technical document with people who are not technically-minded. "We are dealing in a sensitive area of economics and esthetics and are trying to come up with something much better. We are welding the problem on the anvil of public opinion," he said.

He paid tribute to those who have worked on this committee and wished the chamber well in its 1970 year.

CONCERT ON THE KIOSK -- CPO Jim Thumpston, directs the twenty-member Navy Band from the cruiser-destroyer group, Long Beach, while a happy crowd looks on. The band appeared in concert on the Kiosk Saturday night and was enjoyed by many people who attended. The night was balmy and the tunes versatile. Refreshments were served by members of the Upland Employees Association. The band concert was sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Committee.

School Safety Emphasized

The School Traffic Committee under the direction of Betty Root, has been working with the Police Department in helping the elementary school students use the crosswalks and new traffic signals.

The safety lessons will be continued through the first weeks of school to enable the children to learn to use the traffic lights and crosswalks, said a spokesman.

One new experimental traffic signal has been installed at Arrow highway and Fifth avenue. It is on a self-help basis, meaning that the children push the light if they want to cross. It also has operational hours which will be from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Fridays, and not operating on Saturdays or holidays.

Since the light is on a busy street, and new, the Police Department asks motorists using the street to be cautious and watch for the light.

The police department, along with the school safety committee, has cooperated in helping the students learn to use the crosswalks and lights at school crossing sections. This project has been going on for several years and has been effective, said Mrs. Root.

The police department says it is hard to hire crossing guards anymore and that statistics show children are able to learn good safety habits in the early grades.

Meyer Named Fund Chairman

John Meyer, president, Downtown Merchants Association, has been named chairman of the West End United Fund, business section, for the 1969-70 campaign. The drive runs from Sept. 16 to Nov. 4 and Meyer's division has a goal of $9,200 as its share of the overall goal of $390,000.

Rock-Crushing Plant Hearing Set Again In SB For Sept. 25

Location of a crusher plant near Upland and the scene of a stormy hearing before the San Bernardino County Planners in August will be on the Planning Agenda again, Sept. 25 at 1:30 p.m. at the county planning building in San Bernardino.

The matter was tabled after spirited testimony in August. The petition for a variance is sought by Pomona Valley Protective Association and Hooker Materials, Inc. for a rock screening, crushing plant, concrete block plant, asphalt plant, concrete plant and concrete pipe plant within an M-1 (limited manufacturing) zone, located on the north side of Baseline ave. (16th st.) between Central avenue and Los Angeles County Line, northwest of Upland.

The same firm is also seeking a zone change from M-1 (limited manufacturing) to a M-2-T (general manufacturing transitional) zone, located on the north side of Baseline (16th st.) between Central avenue and the Los Angeles County Line, northwest of Upland.

Ho Hum! Dull Council Meeting, Monday Night

In a short and uneventful meeting, the city council met Monday night and enacted very little, but routine business.

The lack of solid business was attributed to the fact that a slow spell existed in the city. City Manager Elwin Alder returned Monday from Germany; Mayor George Gibson is on vacation. The meeting was chaired by Ronald Rossitter.

The council chambers were devoid of citizens who might have had problems, and the mayor pro-tem Rossitter dispatched business in rapid succession.

A discussion on the Cable Airport master plan was postponed to October and Dewey Cable asked the council to consider the free air zone over the airport in the master plan.

Alan Barr, First National Bank of Upland president, was appointed to a three year term on the Board of Parking Place Commissioners effective Sept. 18.

Several bids were awarded, and the meeting adjourned at 9 p.m.

Boys' Club Extensive Reorganization Set

Re-organization of the boys club membership and an eye to fund raising will occupy the time of the new Boys Club Director, Rudy Rodriguez.

He was formerly the director of the San Dieguito Boys club at Solano Beach and was privileged to work with such board members as Robert Young, actor, Jack Kelly, TV actor, and Gene Litler, golfer. Rodriguez was appointed the new director of the Upland club the first of September.

While at Solano Beach, he supervised and worked with some 800 boys and was lucky enough to have a new Boys Club building.

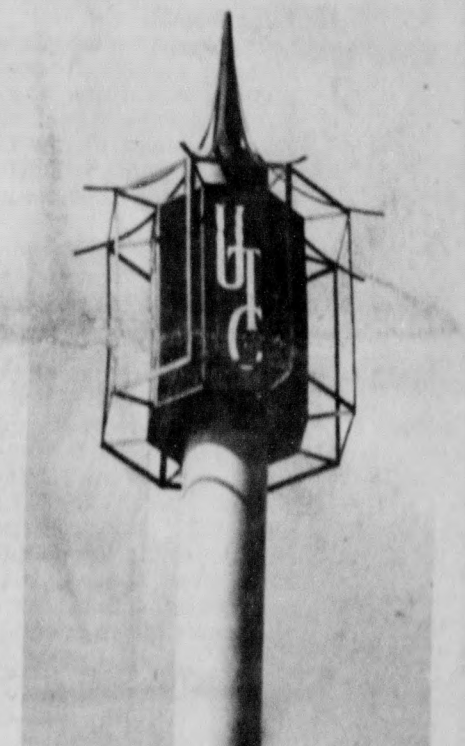

"My primary goals here are to establish a larger and more diverse membership and to work with the board on fund raising plans," the new director said.

He is a native of California, born in Oceanside and graduating from Oceanside-Carlsbad high school. He attended Mira Costa junior college and San Diego State college, where he majored in recreation-administration. He and his wife have two sons and are making their home in Etiwanda.

UTC SIGN -- Upland has a new Town Center sign, or rather an old new one. The old one blew down in a windstorm last year and there was doubt it would be replaced. However, the merchants got together and have bought a new and attractive sign. It is more secure than the last and should stay put, spokesmen said.

Mt. Baldy Road Gets $275,000

The Federal Highway Administration has approved a $420,245 appropriation in forestry development road funds, Rep. Jerry L. Pettis, R-Loma Linda, announced recently.

He said the appropriation includes $275,000 to help repair slide damage and other damage over a 4.87-mile area on Mt. Baldy Road from the snow crest to the San Bernardino County Line.

The appropriation also will pay for flood repairs at 22 other locations, Pettis said.

Reagan Signs Bill

Governor Ronald Reagan has signed into law a bill by Assemblyman John Quimby (D-Rialto) to permit the state to participate in a $30.7 million federal flood control program along Cucamonga Creek.

The project calls for an $8.7 million state expenditure, $450,000 in local funds and the balance in federal funds to finance the construction of four debris basins and 18 miles of lined channel.

When completed, the project will provide protection to residents and businesses in Upland, Ontario, Alta Loma, Cucamonga and the San Antonio Heights area.

Quimby said state funds to help finance the project would be appropriated in a subsequent state budget with construction to commence in 1971.

SCHOOL CROSSING -- Capt. Pete Smith of the Upland Police Department points out the flashing "Don't Walk" sign which indicates the students must wait on the corner. The safety lesson was given on Wednesday at the Upland Elementary school where a new self-help crossing signal light has been installed. The signal light is at Arrow highway and Fifth avenue.

Bad Planning

When the administrative offices of the City of Upland moved to the old library building, one important office was left behind, that of the City Clerk.

Why was this office not included in the move? There certainly looks to be plenty of room in the library building for that office. And this is a vital part of the city and records should be available without having to "run all over for them".

Several other questions arise about leaving the office in the old city hall. For instance, the office is housed in two "add on" buildings, both of which are old. These records are vital to the city and they must not be lost in a fire. What guarantees the city protection of these records?

Secondly, why aren't these vital records housed in fireproof filing cabinets? They cannot be replaced and contain information on the city that is needed. Why aren't they in fireproof cabinets? City officials say it costs too much.

Can the city afford to lose these records? We think not, and ask the city to reconsider locating the City Clerk's office in a fireproof building, or at least housing the vital city records in fireproof cabinets.

A Taste Of The Past

By Jenny Kirkpatrick

The night was balmy and the music was pleasing for some 100 people who gathered around the Kiosk Saturday night and listened to the lilting tunes of the twenty-member Navy band from the cruiser-destroyer group, Long Beach.

The band members wore white uniforms and it was nice for a change to see a group of clean-cut musicians playing music that was easy on the ears.

There were some chairs set up and the refreshment stand manned by the Upland City Employees Association was doing a bustling business selling cool punch and hot coffee and the ever favorites, popcorn and hot-dogs.

Youngsters gathered around the Kiosk and listened intently to the music. They were quiet for a change and the usual horseplay was absent.

It is square these days to wish for old fashioned things and ideas, but one can't help but think that once in awhile in our hurry for the new, if it isn't possible to pause and drink a little of the past.

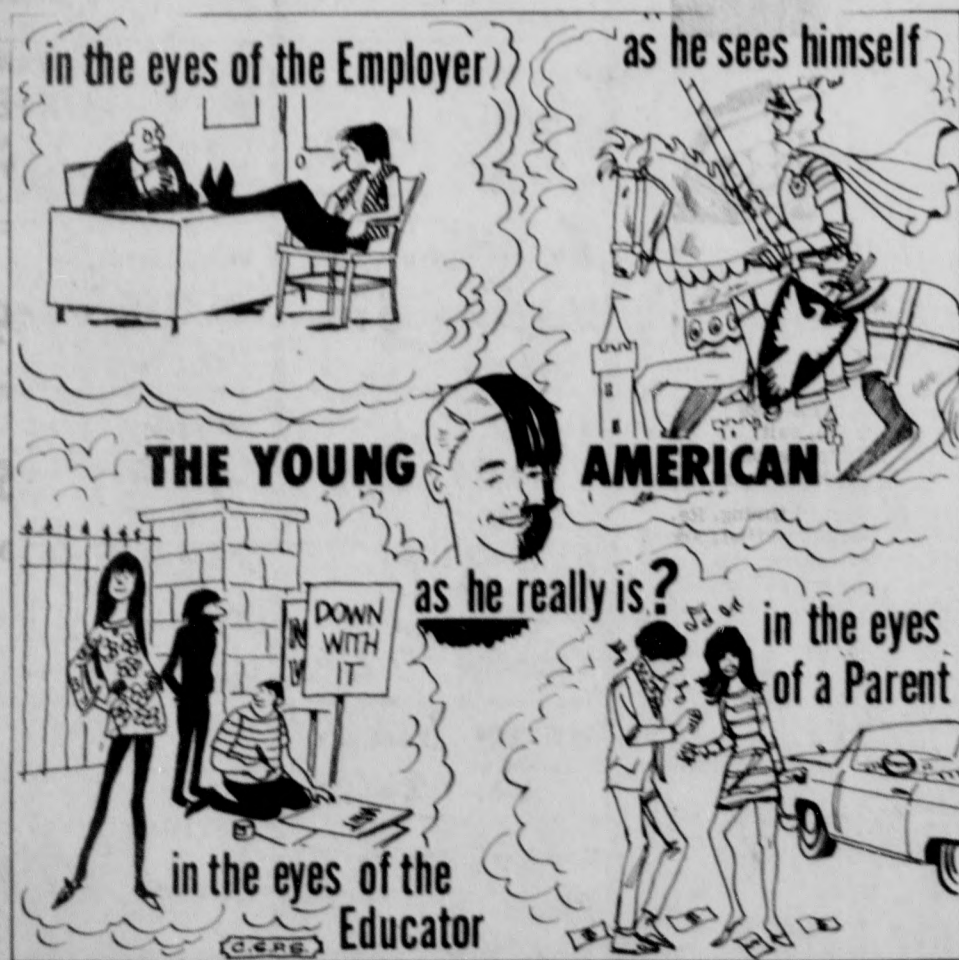

Having been of the generation which knew and liked patriotic music, it was delightful to hear some of these songs played by a band. They may be old fashioned, but the tunes are still stirring. I wouldn't want to say that I expected the band concert to be attended by thousands of people and at times wondered if it were even needed, but after seeing and hearing the performance Saturday night, I would say that maybe we aren't old fashioned enough these days.

Adult Pacifier

At last someone has come up with a safe and sensible pacifier for the tense businessman. It's an "executive sandbox" and retails for a mere $450 (plus shipping costs). The box, made from a variety of woods, is 15 inches high, 42 inches square, and has fluorescent lighting concealed under a black sitting ledge.

Billed as "a creative piece of furniture," it ostensibly serves two purposes, one aesthetic, the other therapeutic. Optional equipment includes a set of combing tools that make varying patterns in the sand ($50). For the exotic taste (and $100 more) the manufacturer will supply a sand refill from such faraway places as Australia, Egypt, Burma, France, Chile, Morocco, Hawaii, Monaco, Italy, or Mexico.

The idea has already found favor with several satisfied customers who now rush home from the office to play in their executive sand-boxes. "It's surprising how often I sit there and play in the sand," says one delighted customer. "And when friends come over, they all look for the best place to set on the ledge so they can play." Fortunately, for those who can't pay the stiff price, a trip to the toy department of the local five-and-dime can provide the same happy results.

'Scene And Herd' In The West End

by Bill Mason

OVERHEARD AT BUFFUMS

A small boy was standing near the escalator in the Pomona Department store watching the moving handrail.

"Anything wrong?" asked the floor supervisor.

"Nope," answered the boy, "just waiting for my chewing gum to come back."

SUDDEN THOT

Do you realize we're raising a whole generation of kids who believe that when a woman grows older she turns blonde.

JOB WELL DONE

One of the most unusual and interesting service club meetings in this area is the annual preview football luncheon of the LaVerne Lions Club.

Coaches from Damien High, Bonita High, LaVerne College, MSAC and Cal Poly are invited to come and present an early look at the season.

When you see those clean-cut looking athletic types--you feel all's well with this country.

Oney Leonard of LaVerne College and a long-time member of the Lions Club annually handles the event and does a tremendous job.

It's a privilege to be invited.

CONFUSIN' SITUATION

The young person today lives in a mighty confusing world.

Half the grown-ups are telling him that he must find himself, while the other half tells him to get lost.

THOSE LONG SESSIONS

Upland is in the midst of a long-drawn out campaign to revise its sign ordinance and what the outcome will be nobody knows for sure.

Apparently the longer the controversy, the less satisfactory is the solution.

San Dimas carried on a lengthy months-long debate on reducing lot sizes in a new development. Final outcome was that nobody including the city, the developer or the opposition to smaller lots was pleased.

BE PREPARED

The vote was not even close--50 to 5,000 to be exact.

The defeated candidate for sheriff walked up the street the next day with two guns hanging from his belt.

"You weren't elected sheriff," said one of the citizenry. "You can't carry guns like that."

"Listen," said the defeated candidate, "anyone with as few friends as I have needs to carry a gun."

SURE IS, PARDNER

Maybe you heard about the Texas rancher who was summoned out of bed at midnight by the jangling of his telephone.

The operator announced to the sleepy rancher, "Long distance from New York."

"Sure as hell is," snapped the rancher as he slammed down the phone.

Party Pooper

Caterers are operating in the red during what a Capitol columnist has called "the silent spring" of Washington social life.

Is the antiparty move in keeping with a serious turn in America: Concern over the war and domestic unrest?

No, Washington watchers say Republicans who have come back to town don't drink. That they just aren't party people.

Which is in keeping with the old definition of the difference between Republicans and Democrats. Republicans are people who keep their shades down. Democrats are those who ought to.--Atlanta Journal

MEAN THIEF

The meanest thief in town is the one who took the Philodendron plant off the front porch of Mrs. Cottie Hamond on east ninth street. She had carefully nurtured the plant which was given to her after her husband passed away. Someone took it this week and she would very much like to have it back. Please return it as it has sentimental value for her and nothing for you, Mr. thief.

HATS OFF

Hats off to the Grove Theatre for the fine summer program of good children's movies. The movies were well attended, judging by the children who flew by our office to go to the theater. The PTA cooperated with the theater and it's this kind of cooperation that helps keep the community a nice place in which to live and raise children.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Happy Birthday to Councilman Max Hawkins on the 23rd and to all others who have September Birthdays.

GREETINGS

Greetings to our Jewish friends on Yom Kipper and post greetings on Rosh Hashanna. And, to our Mexican friends on Mexico's Independence Day, Sept. 16. And finally to all, happy California Admission Day and a hearty Welcome to Autumn on the 21st.

HATS OFF

Hats off to the Chaffey Communities Cultural Center and a committee led by Mrs. George Whitney, for the splendid community calendar. We suggested it a year ago and we're glad it has become a reality. Clubs and organizations in the community are urged to take advantage of this new service.

ISN'T IT QUIET?

Say what you want about children, but when they all return to school, it makes the streets mighty quiet. We miss them in their little summer outfits tripping by the office from the movie or shopping. However, we know the city Mothers are rejoicing in the blessed quietness and well, we really ought to thank the schools for giving us nine months of quiet every year.

NEW SCHOOL OFFICES

Speaking of schools, the Upland district has some new offices in an attractive building on ninth street. One thing very nice is the large board room. Also included are business offices and a curriculum lab.

Mexico Adventure

Sandy Finds Life In Guadalajara Different And Exciting

The thing that proved most startling to Sandy Niles during her recent visit to Guadalajara, Mexico, was the drastic difference in the way Spanish is taught in American schools and spoken in everyday life in Mexico.

"The way I learned the language, it was perfect. The Mexican people use everyday Spanish--it's not perfect," Sandy said.

The vivacious 15-year-old student at Alta Loma High School was asked to fill in readers of the Cucamonga Times on her recent trip which was sponsored by the American-Mexican Student Exchange. This she was delighted to do. "I love to talk about it," she said.

Sandy left about July 24 with Gabriel Covarrubias and 22 other young people participating in the exchange. Gabriel had lived at the Niles home as a "brother" during the month of July. Sandy was to live with Gabriel's family during August as a "sister".

The trip down proved unusual, to say the least. The students traveled together in a camper, 22 in all. "Sleeping was impossible" during the three-day trip, she said.

On arriving in Guadalajara, she and Gabriel were met by his family. She rested and after dinner, everyone went sight-seeing.

Guadalajara is a beautiful city, according to Sandy. "Every block has a monument or a fountain. They must have a fantastic water bill," she observed.

When Gabriel was visiting the Niles home, 10192 La Gloria, Alta Loma, he was asked to do what the rest of the family did, make his own bed, take turns washing dishes and doing other chores. Part of the exchange plan is learning to fit into different cultures by participating in the family life. "I was shocked," Sandy said, "when I found out Gabriel's family had a governess, chauffeur, groundskeeper, cook and five maids."

This of course meant no dishes and bedmaking while on her visit. "In the beginning I would pick up my own dishes and make my bed, but they soon convinced me that that was the maid's work."

"I've been back a week, now, and Mom had me doing dishes the first night home. She figured I'd had a long enough break." The weather was strange, Sandy said. "It was 91 degrees almost everyday and it rained everyday, but somehow it wasn't humid. I really can't explain why."

Guadalajara is situated in a kind of basin, surrounded by mountains. "You can tell it's a tourist city,

In big department stores, English is spoken."

Of course, being Mexican, the afternoon siesta is the rule. "Stores close from 1-3 p.m. then stay open until 7. People come home, eat and take naps. You know, now I miss my nap," Sandy laughed.

"Life is so different, so relaxed. Friends come over and spend the whole day, not just an evening. A picnic is planned for 7:30 a.m. and perhaps all are ready to leave by 2 p.m.," she said.

She visited frequently with the family in Tapalpa, a small Indian village near Guadalajara. It was one of the places she likes best.

When he was here, Gabriel said he like the "Fiestas" (parties) best. Sandy was of the same opinion about them in Guadalajara.

Because Gabriel is younger, and his sister Luzalena (Nena) was Sandy's age, Sandy spent the majority of her time with Nena and "They would say, 'let's go to a little party' and it would mean Champagne and formal," Sandy said. It was quite different than "little parties" in the States.

"They were surprised about my skirt length," Sandy said, Nena's all came to her knees. "But there was nothing I could do about it, and they didn't seem to be offended. In fact, by the time I left, Nena's skirts were a little shorter than before."

One of the really big things that happened while Sandy visited the Covarrubias family was a wedding party. Gabriel's widowed father married one of his aunts in a huge, Catholic wedding. The reception lasted all night and ended with a wedding breakfast.

"It was beautiful," Sandy said. The marriage united not only Gabriel's father and wife, but combined their families which now number 12 children.

Sandy's ambitions have changed with her journey into Mexico. Medicine used to be foremost, now she wants to teach, hopefully a foreign language like Spanish. And she wants to teach it the way it is really spoken so that others, who have an opportunity to do as she did will find it a little easier to understand their host family.

But she's sure they won't have any more fun, nor enjoy a family anymore than she enjoyed her Mexico adventure with the Covarrubias clan.

Upland Teachers Receive 6% Hike

The Elementary School District board of trustees approved a 6 per cent salary increase for certificated teachers and classified personnel.

Salaries now range from $6,800 to $13,440. The increases are retroactive to July 1.

Supt. Vern Orum said the raises were needed because "the cost of living index rose 3 per cent in 1967, 4 per cent in 1968, and so far this year it has gone up 6.4 per cent."

The salaries were increased 5 per cent last year.

The board also authorized a contract with the county schools office for two new classrooms for the trainable mentally retarded at Citrus school and approved a contract for a new classroom at Cabrillo school for the aphasic (without speech) children.

Story Time Will Resume

The Upland Public Library's Children's Department announces the start of the preschool story hours. They will be held on Wednesdays at the library, Euclid avenue and "D" street. One is to be at 10 a.m. and one at 11 a.m. Each story time will last 30 minutes and is for children 2 1/2 years to school age.

Dorothy Farrington is the story teller. Further information may be obtained by calling 982-1561.

NROTC Applications Available At ALHS

Alta Loma High counselors have announced availability of applications for NROTC examinations have been received.

Vice Admiral Charles K. Duncan, Chief of Naval Personnel, has announced to the counselors that the 24th annual national competitive examination for the Regular Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps (NROTC) will be given on Dec. 13.

The regular NROTC Program prepares a young man for a Navy or Marine Corps commission while he is studying at one of the many civilian colleges and universities where NROTC Units are established. All tuition, fees, uniforms, and books are furnished by the Navy, and the student receives $50 per month subsistence allowance for not more than four years.

During the summers between academic year, the student participates in at-sea training periods as a Midshipman. After successfully completing a baccalaureate level college course and all military requirements, he is commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps.

Eligible high school seniors and graduates should submit their applications before Nov. 14. Application forms are available from high school counselors, and the Ontario Navy Recruiting Station.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Petty Officers Bob Kapherr and Bob Springer at 984-8624. Applications and booklets will be mailed out on request.

HS Enrollment Up; Grades Show Decline

Enrollment was up approximately 100 in Upland High School but declined in the junior highs and elementary grades on the first day of enrollment.

Upland High showed 2,581 students on Wednesday, Sept.

10, as compared to 2,464 on the opening day of last year.

In the two junior high schools and nine elementary schools enrollment declined from 5,952 last year to 5,922 on the first day of the current session.

Hospital Patrons Shop At Gift Shop

For five years the hospital gift shop has been operated by the Women's Auxiliary to San Antonio Community Hospital.

The shop, located just west of the reception area exists as a service to patients, visitors, and the hospital staff.

Gifts are available for the patients, birthday and anniversary gifts for the hospital staff, and games and books for children, whether sick or well. The different and unusual gift may be found here. Also in stock are small necessities, combs, notepaper, pencils, toothbrushes, and a variety of candy bars.

Mrs. John King, chairman of the Gift Shop this year, is delighted with the work of her 160 volunteers, some working one four-hour shift a month; others as many as ten shifts a month. They keep the stock moving and ready for sale, three shifts a day, seven days a week.

"Working in the Gift Shop is a wonderful experience", one of the volunteers said recently. "I have become acquainted with members of the hospital staff and have learned some of the hospital ways. It was such a help to feel so at home when recently I had a member of my family in the hospital as a patient. I already knew the nurses and attendants as real people".

In addition to the service and convenience provided to customers, the success of the shop also is reflected in its financial statement.

Profits returned to the Auxiliary are several thousand dollars annually. This money is used to buy new hospital equipment, thereby enhancing the facilities and providing additional services to the patient.

Co-chairman of the shop is Mrs. Maurice Harper, who assists Mrs. King with the purchasing and maintenance of stock.

Scheduling Chairman is Mrs. Judy Towe, who keeps the list of regulars and substitutes in readiness and arranges for scheduling of all volunteers. Mrs. Albert Gendler works closely with Mrs. Towe as assistant chairman.

Sangria Supper Successful Despite Turnout

The idea was unique. The application was deftly done. The night was perfect.

The only flaw was that many failed to take advantage of the Sangria Supper Monday, Sept. 15, which launched the Garrick Players on their Tenth season. Staged at the Opici Winery in

Alta Loma, the Players followed a Spanish theme for the supper and evening of dancing under the stars on the luminario-lighted, olive-bordered parking lot.

A supper of delicious Spanish rice and shepherd's bread accompanied by Sangria (branded wine punch) was served by the Players from trestle tables centered with fruit.

The luminaries, which resembled footlights from a distance, outlined the activity area and lent a glow for dancing to the music of The Executives. The luminaries were made of paper bags partly filled with dirt and lit by candles.

The weather cooperated for the 9 p.m. to midnight gala by providing a comfortable evening and lots of stars in the moonless sky.

The Players, dressed in Spanish flair, served the supper and conversed with guests discussing their forthcoming season. First up will be, "Come Blow Your Horn," by Neil Simon on Nov. 15-16.

Other plays slated for the season are "The Children's Hour" by Lillian Hellman, March 6-7; "Charley's Aunt" by Brandon Thomas, May 15 and 16 and "The Gazebo" by Alec Coppel, June 19-20.

Plays will be presented at Central School, G and Sultana, Ontario.

Information concerning the players or season subscriptions may be obtained by calling 982-6907.

Despite a lower than anticipated turnout, the evening was an enjoyable excursion into something different for those attending.

FORMER TRUSTEE HONORED - Ralph H. Miller (seated) receives a plaque in recognition of his 10 years of service as a member of the Chaffey College board of trustees at the annual employee banquet. Doing the honors is Dr. Merle K. Cox, board chairman. Miller was also a former instructor at the college. Dr. Cox was one of his zoology students in the early 1950's. Both men are Uplanders.

IMPROMPTU ROUNDUP -- In the background Virginia Moore, summer worker at Westward Ho Stables, hustles up a few of the stable's rental horses to pose for a picture.

Year-Round Recreation

Stables Provide Horse Care

Are you a homeowner who can't keep a horse within city limits? Does your horse need a place to stay? Or would you like to rent a horse for a camping excursion? Take lessons? Just ride?

The Westward-Ho Stables, 502 E. 21st St., Upland, can provide answers to your needs.

Located at the end of the street with the wash to its east and citrus trees to its west, the stables are adjacent to the rear of the ranch style home of owner Joe Benes and his family.

Facilities include 26 stalls for housing horses and riding equipment, an open corral, 7 pens for boarding horses, a hay barn, and several larger pens for keeping grade horses for rental.

Riders may choose either an English or Western saddle and rent either by the hour or by the day. The stables' business hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. Trails lead away from the property into the wash.

For $5 an hour beginners can receive riding lessons. The English flat saddle is used for instruction.

"If you can ride an English saddle, you can ride a Western, but the reverse is not true," explained an instructor, Virginia Moore.

Miss Moore worked at the stables throughout high school and a year of junior college until she moved to Hawaii in 1966. She returned this summer and will be working on into the fall.

Also an instructor is 16-year-old Jody Benes who has entered many horse shows and won numerous trophies for horse owners. Her most recent honors include winning two firsts and a second place at the 50th annual Golden Horse Shoe Santa Barbara National Horse and Flower Show. She rode a family horse, Bay Fortune--a Tennessee Walker.

A Tennessee Walker is a cross between a northern trotter and a southern pacer, Mrs. Benes said. It was developed for the overseer on Southern Plantations who had to be in the saddle all day and needed a horse that wouldn't bounce.

Its running walk is up to 18 miles per hour and its flat walk is 9 miles per hour. It moves in such a way that the rider just glides along.

Miss Moore characterized the breed as "the luxury model of the horse."

Besides Tennessee Walkers, the Beneses own Arabian horses and regular grade horses used for rental that are not registered. Mr. Benes also buys and sells horses.

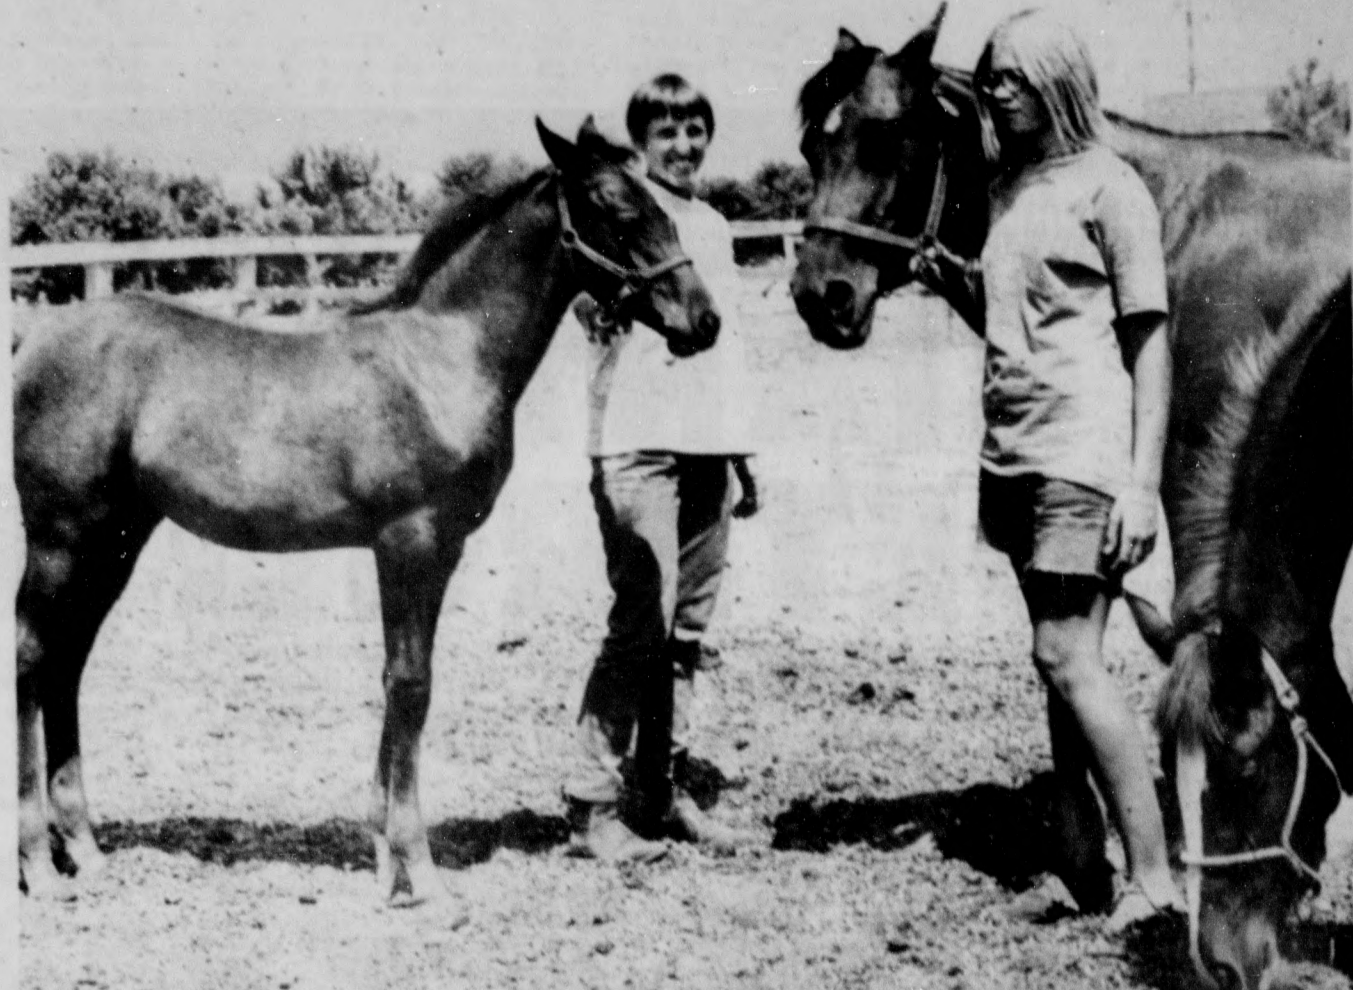

Horses have been a life-long interest for him. At age 10 Benes organized the first stable in Palos Park, Chicago, and set out all the trails there.

He and his wife were neighbors in Berwyn, Ill., when they met and later were married. She also shares his interest in horses.

The family came to California in 1946 after Benes was discharged from the Army. He worked at the Kellogg Arabian Horse Farm from 1947-49 until he purchased Westward-Ho Stables--then located on the corner of 13th Street and Fifth Avenue, Upland--from Frank Pendergast. Less than a year before, it had been owned by Bob Reichers.

The stables then occupied 2 1/2 acres and included 12 stalls, a small stable, a large corral, 25 open corrals, a huge hay barn, and a riding ring.

The Benes' three children helped their father manage the stables--teaching, riding, overseeing, and conducting hayrides.

MOTHER AND COLT -- Debbie Royce, who frequents the Westward Ho Stables, holds the mother while Virginia Moore, worker and riding instructor, holds the colt. A third horse in the big corral also came over to join the crowd.

Hayrides are no longer given, however.

Only the two daughters are at home now -- Beverly, 18, and Jody. The Benes' son Wayne died in Vietnam Oct. 18, 1968, at age 24. He was shot while on a rescue mission for the Army Medical Corps, Mrs. Benes said.

24-HOUR JOB

Caring for horses is a 24-hour-a-day job, Miss Moore explained. Howling coyotes and other noises can disturb the horses at night. A colic and a great dane prowling around the grounds to frighten away unwanted guests.

During the day chipmunks scurry around. Occasionally a snake has been sighted.

Six a.m. is morning feeding time. Horses in the barn receive grain, while those in the pens and corrals have hay. At 5 p.m. all horses are fed hay. During the day they must be watered, groomed, and exercised. Pens and stalls must also be cleaned.

Leasing a horse is another option for parents with restless children.

A child can come to the stables and have access to the horse all day to groom and ride.

"It teaches compassion for a living thing," Mrs. Benes said.

14 New Instructors On Upl High Staff

Fourteen new teachers and one instructor returning from leave are numbered among the staff of 97 at Upland High when school opens Sept. 11.

Total classified and certificated employees is 150.

Returning from a year's leave of absence is Natalie Ritter, history instructor.

NEW TEACHERS

The new teachers are:

Robert Antal, Fern College, Ohio, AB, English;

Mark Boen, LaVerne College, BA, Mathematics;

Stanley Garpenter, Michigan State University, BA, Art; Cal State, Los Angeles, MA;

Don Cochran, Univ. of Calif., Berkeley, BA, History; Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, MA;

GETTING A WASH-DOWN -- Terry Lugenbeel washes down a Polish Arabian horse belonging to the Benes family. The two had just returned from a ride.

ROW OF HORSES -- Curious to see visitors, these horses are sticking their heads out of their stalls at Westward Ho Stables. Some are boarders and some are owned by the Benes family, which owns and operates the stables.

Smog-Free Car Is Here Now!

Smog from cars can be cured! That's the news from an experiment that has gone on for almost two years at the Pacific Lighting organization, parent owner of both Southern California Gas and Southern Counties Gas Co.

Over 30 cars, owned by the gas companies, have been equipped with a special system that will run on natural gas. These 30 vehicles include pickup trucks and passenger cars.

Now, company officials state they have found that the vehicles not only operate with up to a 90 percent reduction in any smog emission, but they operate better.

Engine oil remains cleaner, spark plugs last longer, even the actual purr of the motor is smoother, with the non-smog natural gas, according to company spokesmen.

Total cost of installing this system, to burn natural gas, is just $300 -- and it can be installed in such a way that a flick of a switch can put the driver back on regular smog-producing gasoline, if he is driving into an area where such smog production is not a problem.

Advantage of the switch to natural or gasoline is in the fact the natural gas burning method is not yet developed to a point where it can fuel a car for over a fifty-mile range.

Why aren't auto owners rushing to switch to the clean-burning fuel?

Mainly, because there's none available, say gas company representatives.

Although the gas company can power their 30 experimental cars on natural gas, they do not yet have the storage facilities or distribution methods set up to handle the million-plus vehicles of southern California.

The fact that such distribution will eventually come was forecast by the unheralded announcement from Washington, D. C. of the formation of a company to engage formation of a company to engage in selling the converters to vehicle owners -- and one of the founding fathers of this new company is the former head of the Los Angeles Smog Control Board, Smith Griswald.

Gas company people feel that such a company, selling converters, would hardly be established, if converting to natural gas wasn't in the works for the future.

Pacific Lighting, parent of the gas companies, also holds the patent on the converter this new company will sell, along with franchise in this area on natural gas.

Such a parley could well lead to Pacific Lighting in effect, cornering the market, on the smog-less driving method.

But their officials deny that their organizations will want to become the sole "service station" of the future, suggesting instead that they would simply sell the natural gas to others, who, in turn, would retail it to the car driver -- almost like the present-day gasoline.

Test results have shown the natural fuel powered cars not only emit less smog, but actually cough out far less than the "lower standards" set by the state, to be met by 1974.

While state officials aim at reducing carbon monoxide from the current 1.5 percent down to 1.0 percent in 1974, the natural gas cars slice the deadly fumes all the way down to .07 per cent almost 50 per cent lower than the state goal in 1974 -- and the natural gas cars do it right now!

Where the state sees oxides of nitrogen shrinking from the current 1075 ppm, to 350 ppm in 1974, the natural gas vehicle already has it down to 114 ppm -- and this is one of smog's deadliest ingredients.

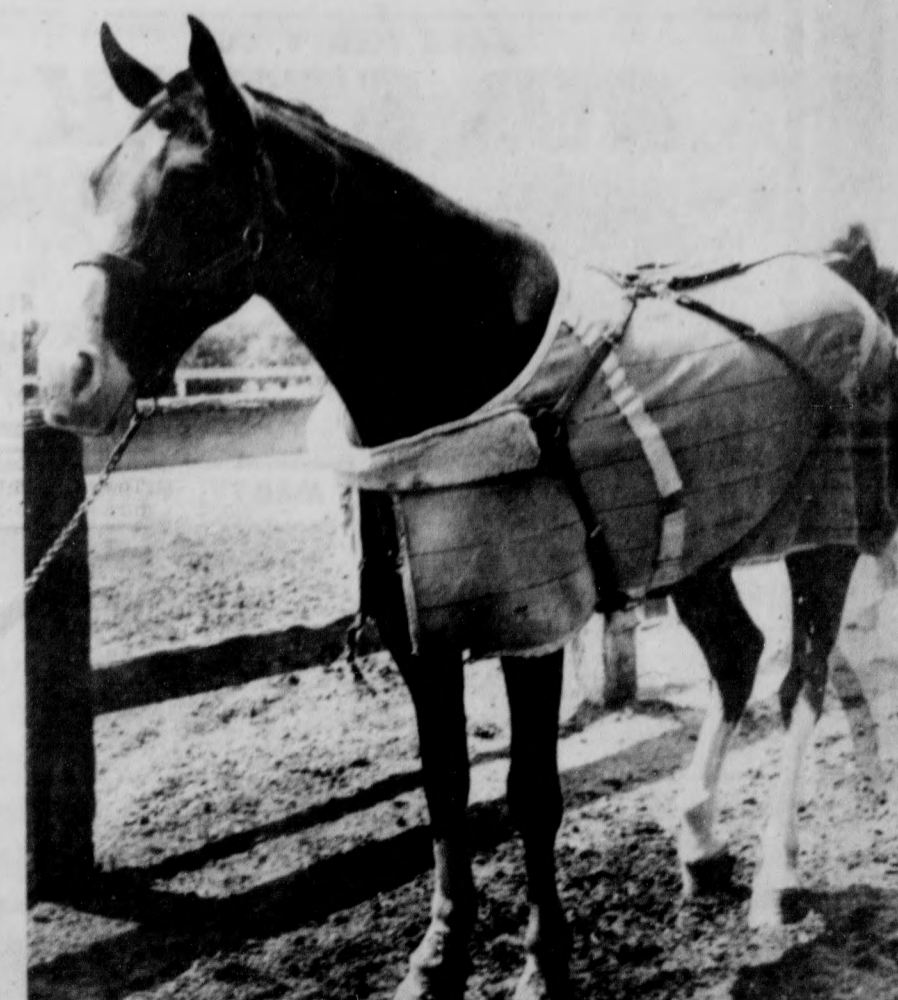

Until wide general distribution of the natural fuel, the gas companies visualize the new by-pass method being used almost exclusively by fleet owners, large cities and municipal transportation concerns.

Authority has already been given the California Highway Patrol to try out the system on some of their vehicles.

Montclair's City Hall spokesmen stated they felt there were too few cars actually under their authority to make any installation feasible now -- but they didn't rule out such a program in the future.

Larger cities, such as Los Angeles, where city employees drive thousands of cars, was suggested as an ideal testing spot, on a large scale.

Until such wide testing begins, the gas companies will continue to drive their 30 smog-less vehicles, and explore ways of bringing back that old-fashioned phrase, "fresh air!"

Ayala To Head March Of Dimes

"No man stands so tall as when he stoops to help a child."

This statement will express a characteristic of Ruben S. Ayala, chairman of the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors, as he assumes the responsibility of leading the S.B. County March of Dimes during the forthcoming 1970 campaign.

Ayala will direct the efforts of an army of volunteers who are devoted to making this a better world for children born less than perfect.

In discussing his appointment, Ayala commented: "If I had a wish to make, I would wish a healthy and peaceful life for every baby born every day in San Bernardino County. Yet, I know this cannot yet be. Annually we have over 2,000 newborn babies in our county physically or mentally handicapped. Across the nation there are 250,000, or 700 each day. This means that every other minute, another child is born to a life filled with despair or hope. We, the March of Dimes Volunteers, provide the hope through our continued efforts in assuring specialized medical care at March of Dimes supported Birth Defects Centers across the nation.

Irene, and their three sons, a Chino high graduate, he attended Pomona Junior college, UCLA Extension school, and graduated from the National Electronic school in Los Angeles. A former councilman and mayor of Chino, he was elected Supervisor of the S. E. County Fourth District in 1966.

COMMUNITY SERVICE
Ayala's other community service activities include: Member of Chino Unified school district for two terms; chairman of the West Valley Planning Agency, 1967; Region Director for the County Supervisors Assoc. of So. Calif., 1968; Law Enforcement committee, 1968; So. Calif. TUMOR REGISTRARS -- Mrs. Doluna Borer, tumor registrar, Mrs. Yvonne Loeb, director of medical records department, and Mrs. Jan Plescia, tumor follow-up secretary, all of San Antonio Community hospital, have been appointed members of the Southern California Tumor Registrars Association, it was announced this week.

Tumor Registrars Appointed

Mrs. Yvonne G. Loeb, Director of Medical Record Department, Mrs. Doluna Borer, Tumor Registrar, and Mrs. Jan Plescia, Tumor Follow-up Secretary of San Antonio Community hospital have been appointed as members of the Southern California Tumor Registrars Association (SCTRA), according to Mrs. Barbara Lord, President. There currently are 42 members in the association. They are affiliated with hospitals in Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, and San Diego counties. Tumor Registrars operate highly specialized records keeping departments in hospitals with reference to tumors and cancer. One of their functions is to help remind patients with a previous history of malignancy to have regular follow-up examinations.

This helps protect the individual against unnecessary suffering, loss of productivity, shortening of life, and medical expenses. Tumor registrars also collect vital data and information, and organize it so that physicians may use this in research. Their work contributes to the ever-increasing medical successes against cancer.

The objectives of SCTRA include the promotion and education and research in tumor registry work. Meetings of SCTRA are rotated between various hospitals. The organization's most recent meeting was held at Queen of Angels hospital and featured a lecture concerning chemotherapy in the treatment of cancer.

San Antonio Community hospital will host a one-day workshop in January.

New Examining Procedures Set For Postmasters

WASHINGTON, D. C. - Congressman Jerry L. Pettis announced today that new examining procedures have been established for post master vacancies when recently created selection boards are unable to recommend a qualified career employee. The Civil Service Commission plans to hold open competitive exams for several hundred post master vacancies in small postal offices and Pettis reported facilities in Amboy, Cedarapines Park, Fawnskin, Forest Falls, Green Valley Lake, Mt. Baldy and Westend have all been included.

Existing registers and scheduled open competitive examinations were cancelled last February when President Nixon approved the Post Master General's recommendation to put these selections on a merit basis.

The new examination procedure will be used only when the screening of career employees by the appropriate selection boards fails to identify a well qualified candidate within the post office.

Upland Opens Season Friday Vs. Eisenhower

A brother team, Rich and Grant Cooper, who were preceded by Jim and Rich Cooper three years ago, are expected to play an important role in Upland High football progress this season. The Highlanders open play, Friday night, Sept. 19 at Eisenhower High in Rialto.

Coach Pat Bandy expects the Upland eleven to be considerably stronger and better balanced than last year's team. The Highlander coach says that the line play should be considerably better.

Added backfield strength coming from Neil Boring, Neil Jones, Chuck Stack, T. J. Quinn and Tom Winter. Stack, 175 pound line backer, was all-conference last year as a junior.

Rich Cooper was an all-SAL player as a sophomore and last year gained all-league honors in Utah.

Upland will be hard hit by the loss of Steve Quinn in the running department.

A large delegation of Highlander fans is expected to follow the team to the Eisenhower contest.

Pulse Of The Plaid

Student Council Meets

While many students flocked to the beaches last week for a final chance to take advantage of the sun and surf, the Highlander student council was busy at work. Issues such as the enforcement of the dress code and the control of unruly junior high school students at football games were discussed.

Last year during football season, many UHS students complained of the behavior of the junior high students at the games. The council felt that since the students receive a discount on the admission price, they should, at the very least, display the proper conduct for the occasion.

Council members have talked to the schools' principals and have asked them to warn their pupils against the recurrence of such behavior. If cooperation with the students is not maintained, measures will be taken that may eliminate the discount they presently receive.

Dress Code

The problem of enforcing the dress code was met with the suggestion of forming a student court. This court would be composed of student body members and perhaps, a council member.

It is felt that if the student who doesn't abide by the district code is warned by fellow students instead of faculty members, he may become more aware that his ap-

The Braves of Alta Loma High and the Montclair Cavaliers will rip open the 1969 gridiron season, Friday night at the Upland High stadium at 8 p.m. in what promises to be a close match between non-conference opponents.

The Cavaliers have been rebuilding for two years since their 1966 SAL championship, and this could be their year.

Coach John Witham says that his charges are much better than last year's team which had a 1-6 record in the league and a 3-6 overall mark.

In the backfield Steve Sorenson, 200, and Stan Combs, 175 have shown considerable promise as fullbacks. Greg Campbell, 6-4, 175, who showed much promise towards the end of last season, a junior, is expected to start at quarterback.

Offensive line will be one of the big improvements with all league guards (second team) Mike Antone, 190, and Brian Austin, 189, tackle Steve Mecca, 215, and center Bob Runyan, 180, as standouts. Gary Turner, 6-3, 210 is rated as one of the best tight ends in Cavalier history.

Others who will see action in the backfield will be Hank Merenda, Jim Noriega, Dave Sadler, Tim Price.

BRAVES STRONG

The Braves came on strong at the end of last season after winning only one of their first four games to end the year with a 5-4 mark, including a victory over Ontario.

Coach Forest Anderson is expected to alternate Senior Tony Grasso and Junior Gordon Youngblood at quarterback.

Other returnees include Mark Butters, Paul Perry, Tusi Mamea, and Curt Christensen.

Greg Lester is expected to provide leadership at halfback along with Doug Hall and Bill Baylon.

Newcomers expected to see action Friday are Leland Franklin, Mike Allen, Chuck Her-pearance is not acceptable, even by his own peers.

"GET-ACQUAINTED" DANCE

After being officially welcomed to Upland high school Friday, the freshman class will have the opportunity to meet other Highlanders Saturday night during the first dance of the year. The get-acquainted dance will be held in the gym after the Scots' scrimmage with Barstow on our own field.

Gen. Tel. To Conduct Study On Attitudes

General Telephone Co. of California announced that it has retained Biddle and Associates, management consulting firm, and MSI International, marketing and attitude research organization, to conduct a major study of telephone customer attitudes this fall in southern California.

The Public Utilities Commission has approved the two firms chosen by General Telephone.

Personal interviewing of 4,800 customers in their homes and offices will commence later this month and continue through most of October, according to Stewart W. Phillips, vice-president, public relations, for the utility.

A scientifically designed and statistically accurate random sample of customers in all of General's service areas will be interviewed.

Pacific Telephone customers in the Los Angeles metropolitan area will also be contacted in order to provide comparative data.

All individual responses will be held confidential by the research team so that customers of both General and Pacific may feel free to comment on their telephone service in complete candor, according to John B. Delbridge, vice-president, consumer marketing, Biddle and Associates.

Cucamonga-Based Firm Subsidiary Gets Contracts

Radyne, Inc., Chatsworth, Calif., wholly-owned subsidiary of Data-Design Laboratories (OTC), Cucamonga, Calif., has been awarded a new $447,000 subcontract and a $250,000 follow-on subcontract, according to Thomas C. Beiseker, chairman and chief executive officer of the parent company.

The first contract, funded through next December for $447,000, is for an electro magnetic pulse simulator considered an advancement in the state-of-the-art. It represents the largest contract to be received by Radyne for the design and manufacture of electronic hardware, Beiseker noted.

Beiseker said the other $250,000 contract follows an earlier $70,000 award for electronic countermeasure antenna systems to be used by the Navy, and is for a six month program.

Radyne, Inc. develops and produces advanced systems to be used by the microwave antenna systems and precision electro-mechanical automatic tracking gimbals for the aerospace industry. It was organized in October, 1968 and acquired by Data-Design in May, 1969.

Data-Design is a designer and manufacturer of electronic countermeasures equipment, communication and training systems and related documentation.

Hoosier Hot Shots Coming For LDS Benefit Show

The Hoosier Hot Shots? Are they still at it? Yes! Faster and funnier than ever!

The original Hoosier Hot Shots, pioneers in the comedy novelty band movement that produced such groups as Spike Jones, the Korn Kobbers and, finally, Herb Albert, are coming to Upland. The famous washboard and skiffle rhythm that has sold millions of record albums, even the famous phrase: "Are you ready, Hezzle?", will be heard in one performance only on Saturday, Sept. 20, in the Pomona Stake Center of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 785 North San Antonio, Upland.

The rare appearance is a fund raiser for the new chapel to be built soon in the Claremont-La Verne area, according to Bob Olsen, publicity head for the Claremont Ward Building Fund Committee.

Longhorns Head North

Fifty members of the Southern California Chapter of the University of Texas Ex-Students Assn. will fly to San Francisco Friday, Sept. 19 to support the Longhorn football team playing the University of California at Berkeley in Frisco.

Game time is 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 20. The local Texans will join the San Francisco Exes and those from Texas on chartered buses from the Sir Francis Drake Hotel to the game.

Friday night there will be a cocktail party at the Domino Club and Saturday at 10 a.m. a brunch will be held at the Sir Francis.

A night club tour departing from the Manx Hotel at 8 p.m. Saturday will climax the San Francisco weekend.

Anyone interested in further details may contact Southern California Chapter President Rudy Mueller at 927-9557.

Dental Group Fights Tobacco

A resolution opposing the use of tobacco has been passed by the Council on Dental Health of the Southern California Dental Association, according to Council chairman Dr. Hugo M. Kulstad. Kulstad said the resolution was adopted because of the increasing incidence of oral cancer and other hazards to general health associated with the use of tobacco.

"The dental profession should assume a more active role of professional education and public education regarding this menacing health hazard," said Kulstad.

The resolution, based on a recommendation from The Council on Dental Health, advocates institution by the SCDA's component societies of "educational programs to inform dentists and dental patients, especially young patients, of the hazards to both oral and general health associated with the use of tobacco."

"Loving to Live"

Will Rogers used to say, "I never met a man I didn't like." Isn't this a wonderful way to feel!

It's possible for everyone to feel this way. In fact, Christian Science shows that it is as natural for us to love as it is for the sun to shine.

In her free public lecture, Miss Grace Bemis Curtis of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship will explain the spiritual basis of love and its direct relationship to life itself.

You and your friends are most cordially invited to attend.

Art In Action Show Top Fair Attraction

POMONA-The Los Angeles County Fair's famous Art In Action Show will stage a homecoming this year.

Featuring exhibits of Peruvian and Japanese creations the past two years, this year's show will highlight the current scene in American Art. Eight of the nation's top artists will give live demonstrations of their work everyday throughout the fair's 17 day run, Sept. 12-28. Both traditional and innovative styles will be represented.

Michael Arntz, University of California at Santa Barbara sculptor, will exhibit ceramic and stone work creations in several small pools in the exhibit's anteroom. He will also work daily with creations on the pottery wheel in the show's patio area.

One of San Francisco's most famous artists, Ruth Asawa, will present a large display of work highlighted by personally designed sculptures of crocheted wire. Other objects in the exhibit will be bronze pieces.

Bringing her work to life, Mrs. Asawa will work with some of her own family in an attempt to show how creative children can be while working with a dough-type mixture of flour, salt and water. According to Rick Peterson, exhibit supervisor, "As you're watching, within seconds, a piece can be modeled and decorated." Various figures, from tiny dolls to sculptural murals, will be made with the use of an electronic oven.

Jirayr Zorthian of Alhambra, "one of the most creative and skillful painters and designers in Southern California," according to Peterson, will give daily demonstrations drawing from models and painting portraits with oils.

Zorthian will also exhibit some of his free time creations of "everyday things" such as children's toys.

An internationally known sculptor, John Svenson of Montclair, will demonstrate the art of carving tree trunks into "sculpture in the round" objects. Svenson works with such difficult woods as redwood and sycamore to create animals and other figures.

Taking center stage in the exhibit's main room will be a display of creative weaving by Penny Baker of Claremont.

Bob Stockdale of Berkeley, "the most famous wood turner in the country," Peterson feels, will work with a number of strange and unusual woods creating bowls of various sizes, grains and colors.

Martha Underwood will round out the list of artists demonstrating on the exhibit's "inside." Using a "bold, free use of color form and texture," the Claremont resident will demonstrate a process of creative stitching.

Highlighting demonstrations in the exhibit's patio area, Kim Newcomb of San Jose will give daily demonstrations of original glass blowing techniques.

One of the fair's major exhibitions, Art in Action will be open 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Friday and Saturday throughout the exposition's 17-day run.

There'll be something for everyone this year. "The Fair," according to Peterson, "has never had a series of demonstrations that will reach to everyone as these will."

Twin Counties Press Club Sponsors Creative Writing

Twin Counties Press club is now accepting entries in its 3rd annual creative writing contest for students and adults, with the competition open to all of Southern California.

Cash awards of $25 each will go to first-place winners in three divisions -- poetry, short story and non-fiction articles on both adult and student levels. Certificates will be awarded to second- and third-place winners, and to those receiving honorable mention.

The student division is for full-time students under the age of 22 at a high school, college or university.

A $5 fee is required for each prose entry in the adult competition, and $3 for poetry. A $3 fee for prose entries is required for each student entry and $2 for poetry.

All entries must be double-spaced, typewritten on 8 1/2 x 11 inch paper with author's name, address and telephone number listed, along with the division name and level entered on a separate, but attached, cover page.

To facilitate judging, the author's name must be omitted from the actual text pages with only the title of the piece appearing on the judging copy. The title must be typed on cover pages which will be coded and separated before going to the judges.

Short story entries are limited to not more than 5,000 words. Articles have a word limit of 2,500.

Length of poetry should be no more than 24 lines.

Winning works may be published in the Twin Counties Press Club Annual with all other rights reverting to the authors upon publication. Only first place awards will be considered for publication in the annual. No other works will be published and authors retain all rights.

A person may enter as many times as he wishes, but each entry must be accompanied by a separate entry fee. All entries must be original and unpublished.

Writers wishing to have manuscripts returned should enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope for each entry.

Judges, yet to be announced, will be professional writers and teachers. Co-chairmen for the contest are freelance writer Jory Sherman and Joel Baugh, Action Line columnist for the Progress-Bulletin, Pomona.

Upwards of 5000 women are expected to attend from southern California and as far away as Phoenix. Miss Ethel Waters, and Miss Norma Zimmer will sing at the women's luncheon.

Mrs. Ronald Reagan, California's First Lady, serves as Honorary Chairman.

Assisting in the arrangements for this event, as well as directing the extensive development of the Women's Prayer Group program for the Crusade, is Mrs. Earl Mooney of Fullerton.

Much spade work has been done in developing the Women's Prayer Groups in the homes of many women in the community. The work started as early as last April with organizational meetings with the leaders.

Hostesses were enlisted who would invite neighborhood friends to their homes for prayer for the Crusade at scheduled times. The "Prayer Time" broadcast will be heard at 9:45 a.m., Monday through Friday, beginning Sept. 8 and continuing through Friday, Oct. 3 on station KRKD (1150 kc) and KAVR-FM (102.3 San Bernardino Co.). It is also aired at 7:45 p.m. from KBBI-FM (107.5) at 7:45 p.m.

Any woman interested in attending a prayer group in her area is invited to do so. Following is a list of time and place of meetings, as well as names of area leaders from whom further information may be obtained:

District 2 chairman is Mrs. E. H. McGannon, 5566 Benito st., Montclair, phone 626-4186.

Zone C Chairman is Mrs. Archie Pritchard, 1300 N. Grove, Upland, phone 982-3815.

Montclair neighborhood leaders: Mrs. Carl Hinson, 5057 Rudisill, 624-6801; Mrs. John Kooy, 9853 Ramona, 626-5250; Mrs. H. R. Matheson, 4264 E. Phillips, Pomona, 627-1035.

Neighborhood leaders in the Upland, Cucamonga and Alta Loma area are: Mrs. Roger Vignocchi, 554 Aster (982-4386); Mrs. Leslie Vrieze, 1572 Columbine Way (985-1414); Mrs. Robert Ward, 1322 Alta (982-9579); Mrs. Fred Hahn, 270 Euclid Pl., (985-1638); Mrs. Ken Taylor, 7254 Agate, Alta Loma, (987-3041); Mrs. Allen Pritchard, 9551 Tryon, Cucamonga (987-4901).

Sports Tips

SAILING

A capsized small sailboat usually can be righted if you stand on the end of the centerboard, take a firm hold on the side of the boat and pull it toward you while pushing down with your feet. If you cannot right the boat, do not try to swim ashore. Stay with the boat until someone comes to assist you. A real lifesaver when you come ashore is Desert Flower hand and body lotion. You'll sail through the day and evening feeling refreshingly ship shape.

Blithe Spirit To Open At Gallery

Casting has been completed for The Gallery Theatre's fall presentation of Noel Coward's Broadway and London stage success, "Blithe Spirit," opening Thursday, September 25, for a five-week run.

Director Mark Shipley announces that the following cast will star in the "Tour De Farce": Charles Condomine will be portrayed by C. Tamson Wiseman; Ruth Condomine will be portrayed by Anne Green; Elvira will be portrayed by Anita Allen; and Madame Arcati will be portrayed by Theresa Ciranna.

Doctor Bradman will be played by Larry Cockrell; Mrs. Bradman will be played by Joy Nye, and Edith will be played by Carolyn Wiseman.

"Blithe Spirit" is considered Coward's best play, an involuted mystery building to a hysterically ironic conclusion. The play begins with a scene, led by Madame Arcati, who brings from the afterworld, Charles Condomine's first wife, much to the dismay of his second wife. And then, the plot thickens. It is an experience not to be missed. For reservations call 982-5357.

ONE MORE. Some observers, but not many, might note they had seen plenty of Florida mermaids in summer newspapers. Most can appreciate this photo of Diane Wyngate (probably saluting achievement of astronauts in putting a flag on the moon) as she salutes Old Glory at the bottom of Florida's Weekly Wachee Springs.

PV Branch Of AAU Plans 'Garden Fiesta' Branch

A "Garden Fiesta" brunch is being planned by the Pomona Valley branch of the American Association of University Women to welcome and acquaint new and prospective members with the organization.

It will be held Saturday, Sept. 20, 10:30 a.m., at the home of Mrs. Ernest Carl, 1230 Hillcrest dr., Pomona.

The brunch committee, headed by Mrs. Dennis DeCicco is making bright colored flowers and decorations to lend to the Mexican patio atmosphere.

As guests arrive, they may browse through new materials for this year's study sections, which are titled "The Human Use of Urban Space" and "This Beleaguered Earth -- Can Man Survive?" Mrs. David Haneline, membership chairman, will welcome guests and Mrs. David Orr, president, will explain the club's objectives and activities, while Mrs. Donald Garland (San Dimas) and Mrs. Eugene Thompson, study section chairmen, introduce the new study topics.

Others helping with the brunch are Mrs. David Buckland, Mrs. David Bedell (La Verne), Mrs. Colin Coombs (Diamond Bar), Mrs. George MacKenzie and Mrs. Walter Smith (both Montclair), Mrs. John L. Whitham, Mrs. Albert Sutton, Mrs. Theodore Swartz, and Mrs. J. A. Sargent. Invitations, made by Mrs. Thomas Jeffers and Mrs. David Couch, are being sent out to many prospective members; but all members and women graduates of approved colleges or universities in the U. S. or abroad are eligible to join and are invited to attend.

Hollywood Bowl Sets Johnny Cash For Sept. 27

It will be Johnny Cash Night Sept. 27, at the Hollywood Bowl.

Johnny holds three formidable titles, that of the nation's leading singer of Country-Western Music, America's foremost singing story teller, and the country's top purveyor of pop music.

Now the star of his own network TV show, Johnny has become a legend in his time. A rugged six feet, two inches tall and part Indian, he hails from a cotton farm in Arkansas and has been "writin'" country-western music, "singin'" it and "performin'" it since he was a lad.

Actually Cash is much more than a Country-western music entertainer. Composer of many of the melodies in his repertoire, he sings songs men understand; songs of the road, dirges of prison walls, the laughter of the land; and the tears that fall by the open grave. Though his art is as American as apple pie, his style and delivery goes back generations to the wandering troubadours of medieval England and Europe.

Official Blasts Mandatory Inspections

Mandatory health inspection for the County's 200,000 food handlers would not protect the public health, and the program would cost the taxpayers more than eight million dollars annually, County Health Officer, Dr. Gerald A. Heidebreder reported to the Board of Supervisors today (Wednesday, September 10, 1969).

The Supervisors asked Dr. Heidebreder to make a recommendation on establishing a physical examination of food handlers every three months.

The request for considering this program was made to the Board by the Los Angeles City Council's Health and Welfare Committee.

"Certificates to show that food handlers have been examined is no guarantee against the presence of communicable disease or most other illnesses," the Health Officer said. "That is the reason the program has been dropped by the foremost Health Departments throughout the United States."

Dr. Heidebreder pointed

ed out to the Board in his report that the protection of the public can be best achieved through -- the current Health Department procedure:

"a sustained program of complete sanitary inspections, involving enforcement of existing State and local laws;

"review and approval of plans and specifications for new establishments and equipment -- particularly the restrooms, toilets and hand-washing facilities;

"most importantly, a strong educational program on food handling techniques and personal hygiene carried out during the sanitary inspections and through organized training classes."

Women Internationally Enjoy New Pat Walker Figures

IN MONTCLAIR! OPEN NOW! 5033 SOUTH PLAZA LANE, MONTCLAIR PLAZA

—Miss Dorothy Rooney, Cremorne, Australia

The Pat Walker treatment is so private and pleasant. Everyone at the Salon is friendly and interested. I feel I cannot lose anything but more unwanted inches.

I am so grateful to Pat Walker for bringing to Australia a reducing program that really works. I have already lost 11 pounds and 22½ inches overall.

The way these treatments have helped me reduce is proof positive that any woman who uses Pat Walker's marvelous program will be pleasantly surprised by the wonderful results.

—Mrs. Ethel Mook, Long Beach

I would like to say that the most thrilling moment of my life was the day I walked into Pat Walker's Reducing Salon and heard the words I had wanted to hear, that I could and would have a slim, youthful figure again.

I was 35 inches around my waist. I would shun scales, also when I passed a mirror I would look the other way.

My dress size at the start was size 18. Now I wear size 12. I can say now, I'm one of the happiest women in the world.

—Mrs. Marilyn Hamman, Pasadena, Salon

For the last seventeen years or so I've had a problem taking off inches and shedding weight.

As a result nothing would be permanent. Dieting splurges result in only temporary weight loss, so I knew I had to do something which would be satisfying and permanent.

The Pat Walker Program of reducing is so relaxing and sensible. Reducing is made easier than ever.

I fully recommend this program for any woman that would like to be down to her perfect dress size.

—Mrs. Flora B. Landers, Pasadena

I had gained so much weight that I had to wear a size 16 dress and became much too heavy for my build and felt so matronly.

I now wear a size 10 dress and have just remarried and have a very admiring husband.

We spent our honeymoon in Hawaii where I really enjoyed wearing a bathing suit again. I can't say enough for the Pat Walker Program.

—Mrs. Helen Roberts, Los Angeles

I had no pep or energy. I even hated to shop for a new dress; I was so ashamed of my size 20½. I had gotten to the point where I felt nothing would work.

With the Pat Walker Program I have reduced to 123 pounds and to a size 10 dress, and am still losing inches.

I can't praise Pat Walker enough, as I give her credit for my slender figure and I have a whole new outlook on life.

When I was obese, men wouldn't look at me. Now I have no problems. I have never felt better and now enjoy a good social life.

—Mrs. Pat Hanson, Reseda

It's been just great! Your new computer program is marvelous because you take your treatments in the privacy of individual rooms without being disturbed until your treatment is completed.

I can tell you that my husband is really proud of me! He is always complimenting me now, which he never did before and I really can't blame him for not doing so in the past.

Although I am only 5 feet, 2 inches, I was 136 lbs. and wore a tight size 12. Now I wear a loose size 5 and am still slimming down. Thanks so much, Pat Walker, for your marvelous program. I couldn't have done it without your help!

—Mrs. Ira C. MacDonald, Long Beach

The morning I stepped on the scales to check my weight, it was a shock to see the dial stop at 216 lbs. Enough of a shock to bring me to my senses and decide to do something about my weight NOW, not LATER.

I decided, then was the time for professional help. I had been reading your advertisements for several months, and was hopeful that you could do for me what you had done for so many other overweight women.

My weight is down to 146 lbs. and last week I bought a size 14½ dress, instead of a size 24½.

IN PERSON! LIMITED TIME ONLY! MISS PAT WALKER, THE REDUCING AUTHORITY INTERNATIONAL, WILL PERSONALLY GREET YOU DURING THE OPENING OF HER NEW MONTCLAIR SALON!

MISS PAT WALKER the Reducing Authority International

PAT WALKER FIGURES IN OVER 5 MILLION SUCCESS STORIES

from an article by a California Fashion Editor

It was half way around the world . . . a mere dot of an island in the South Pacific. The plane circled, roared down the runway, then thundered to a stop.

"We have landed in Pago Pago," the stewardess announced. "We will be here 30 minutes for refueling."

Thronged of native well-wishers swarmed around the plane . . . And around a muu-muu-clad wahine, who seemingly, immobilized by her own bulk, withstood their thrust like an immovable fortress. THEN she spotted the familiar figure of a strikingly attractive brunette passenger.

"It's Pat Walker!" exclaimed the islander, bulldozing her 300 pounds toward the internationally known figure authority.

"Have you come to open a salon here . . . ?" she asked excitedly, explaining in a mixture of native dialect and broken English, "We read every about you in the papers" — newspapers discarded by the airlines — and about all those ladies you make so beautiful and thin.

"See," she said slapping her bulging torso for emphasis. "See, we need you here!" It's that need — whether the locale be Park Avenue or Pago Pago — that has made Pat Walker undisputed heroine of every woman's Battle of the Bulge.

Today, the story of her success is measured on an international scale, figuring in headlines from the top of the world to Down Under.

One U.S. columnist recently wrote: "She's out to reshape the world with her revolutionary computerized equipment." . . . a metropolitan newspaper in Australia identifies her editorially as "the world's foremost figure authority" . . . and because she jets halfway around the world at least twice a month, flight personnel of Pan American Airlines calls her "the flying Irishman." One of the latest stars in her international crown: she served as an official judge in Long Beach's International Beauty Contest last April.

A celebrated nightclub performer in Hawaii refers to her as "the skinny maker" . . . and a British opera singer, who flew from London to take treatments at the Pat Walker salon in Sydney, Australia, is still singing her praises. The singer had been told that before she could audition for an important role on the London stage, she would have to lose weight — a great deal of weight. She did — and won the role!

OVER 5 MILLION SUCCESS STORIES

The London opera singer is just one in a million success stories in Pat Walker's career. Correction: millions of success stories!

Already the 5-foot-3, 101-pound Irish human dynamo has pared down and redistributed the dimensions of more than five million women in her fast-growing chain of reducing salons.

Coming from all walks of life, her patrons have ranged in age from 7 to 94. Some have lost more than 100 pounds. Among them have been celebrities and sales clerks, models and machine operators, professional women and waitresses, airline stewardesses, housewives, teenagers and grandmothers.

Her files bulge with the names of satisfied customers and with success stories of marriage that seemed destined for the rocks, but were saved . . . of stars who made comebacks with new box office figures . . . of senior citizens who rediscovered their zest for living . . . of career women and housewives who regained their pride and self-confidence, their marital happiness and/or job status.

Pat Walker's fleet of salons currently stretches half way around the world (Australia, Hawaii, Southern California) and all are running at full capacity.

Coming soon: equally swank salons in Mexico City and the Brentwood - Santa Monica area. Also on the drawing boards are salons for New York City, London, Paris, New Zealand, Washington, D.C., Hong Kong and Tokyo.

NEW COMPUTERIZED EQUIPMENT

All Salons are equipped with the firm's new all-computerized units which take all the guesswork out of reducing and figure correction. The precision equipment was developed and researched by Pat Walker and Company.

"There is no other equipment and reducing program like it anywhere in the world, she notes with authority. Ours is the only computerized program and reducing equipment in existence that has been scientifically researched and developed."

Back in the days when Pat Walker opened her first salon, a single treatment required 50 minutes — and patrons were shuffled from one piece of equipment to another, five in all! The new computerized program — each treatment now requiring only 30 relaxed minutes without disrobing — is accomplished more effectively on just ONE piece of equipment.

Pampered by luxurious surroundings, individual privacy and courteous attendants, lulled into complete relaxation by piped-in music, the patron can — and usually does — drift off into detached contentment while the unit goes to work on fatty tissue, muscle toning, circulation, posture correction AND those forgotten areas that haven't flexed a muscle for months — perhaps years.

INDIVIDUAL PROGRAMMING

What makes the BIG difference is that each woman's figure correction is programmed individually ("no two women are alike") to correct HER specific figure faults: dowager hump, large hips and thighs, protruding abdomen, thickening shoulders, flabby tissues . . . whatever.

What are the most common figure faults? Hips and thighs.

The ideal female dimensions: "There are none," says Miss Walker. "Ideal measurements are purely personal — depending on bone structure, height and weight distribution. A woman can weigh 125 pounds and have a perfect figure — one that is right for her. On the other hand, 110 pounds and 36-24-34 dimensions can add up to a bad figure if they're not ideal for the woman's

—Mrs. Pauline G. Morton, Orange County

I never thought I would ever see the day that I would be one of the women I've read about in the Pat Walker advertisements. It was a wonderful experience that I shall never forget. I must admit that I never really believed the advertisements, until now, and I can say that the Pat Walker Figure Perfection Salons' advertisements are for real.

Now that my dream of being slim is no longer a dream, I hope my being in the "Before and After" advertisement will help other women to realize that with the Pat Walker reducing program, dreams do come true.

—Mrs. Doris Fernandez, Los Angeles

Sympathetic with my unsuccessful attempts to lose weight on my own, my husband finally told me, "Go see if Pat Walker can back up all that advertising!"

It was a case of buying a whole new wardrobe, size 18, or reducing to buy me back into my size 16's. And maybe, if I was real lucky, into a couple of 14's I had so hopefully clung to.

That part didn't quite work out. I quickly bypassed the 16's, the 14's had to be greatly altered and I still have to buy a whole new wardrobe, now size 12.

—Mrs. Jeanne Crawford, Whittier

Mrs. Jeanne Crawford, of Whittier, was a 205-pound size 24½. Mrs. Crawford was born in Paris and was an Opera Singer.

When she got married she weighed 103 pounds, but over the years she became excessively overweight. When being photographed she used her Poodle to try to hide her bulky figure.

In the photograph with Miss Pat Walker Mrs. Crawford is wearing a size 14 dress and she is still going down.

—Del Cartwright, Sydney, Australia

I have a TV programme in Sydney and write the "Dear Del" column in the newspapers. Recently I started to be conscious of my hips and the tops of my legs. Everything I eat seems to go to the same place, which — well, you know.

Reducing at Pat Walker's is done without guesswork and in the salon's luxurious atmosphere. You can be lazy, pampered and reduce and you'll see the results after three treatments.

—Mrs. Dorothy Foust, Reseda

Over the years Mrs. Dorothy Foust had tried all kinds of diet, diet pills, and exercises only to lose 10 or 15 pounds and gain it right back. For months her husband had encouraged her to come to us to see if we could help her, but she found many excuses for not coming.

However, when the scales went to 205 pounds, she decided she was desperate and would have to call us, which she did.

Her husband tells her she is "a new you" and her children tease her and call her "skinny." She says it is music to her ears.

—Mary Van Hooser, Lakewood

I am delighted with the results of my reducing since I started at your Figure Perfection Salon. To just lay on the couch, relax and watch the pounds melt away and the inches disappear is sheer joy.

I have reduced from a size 18½ to a size 14 and am still going down. My weight has changed from 169 to 138 pounds and I have lost 44½ inches overall so far.

I highly recommend your program for anyone interested in a new and lovelier figure and am truly glad I had my figure analysis and treatments.

—Mrs. Lynn Hays, Orange County

I had a successful career in Real Estate until surgery stopped me.

After surgery and months of convalescence with little exercise, my weight was out of control. I tried many reducing methods and all were very unsatisfactory.

Within two weeks improvement was certain with the Pat Walker Reducing Program. Results were steady and my general health and circulation improved.

I reduced from a 169-pound size 18½ to a 121-pound size 10. This business world is much easier to face in a trim dress size.

Angels Angles

by Con Lacy

If you could visit a store today and still pay the same prices you paid back in 1960, for food and clothing, you would think you really had it made.

Unfortunately, groceries and clothing costs have skyrocketed. This fact was graphically demonstrated to me recently as I accompanied my wife on several shopping trips prior to school for our youngsters.

Kids clothing seems to have doubled in just one short year. And Shoes—my nine-year daughter's new school shoes set me back $14.98.

It seems only a few months ago I paid 37¢ for a package of breakfast cereal. Last week-end, the same brand cost me 61 cents—at a discount grocery.

Miraculously, however, Angels Home Improvement Centers are still holding the line on lumber and other building materials prices. Comparison prices on many of the building products today, show they are still very much the same as back in 1960 and 1961 at Angels.

This means that the working man—the do-it-yourselfer can still add-a-room, or improve his home at pretty much the same price he could do it ten years ago.

In fact, the do-it-yourselfer is about the only one who can afford to keep up with all those improvements and repairs. If you've called in a carpenter or plumber recently, you certainly know what I mean.

In many instances, materials today are easier to work with, and are superior to the products sold 10 years ago. Pre-finished paneling, for example, featured at Angels, is V-Grooved, available in a variety of attractive styles, and never needs to be painted. The new vinyl finishes are really beautiful and can be effectively utilized by an amateur carpenter.

Pre-finished paneling at Angels is available from $2.99 per sheet up. You can spend a very profitable afternoon inspecting the tremendous selection available. You'll be amazed at the improvement you can add to your home's value at so little extra cost.

Another red-hot anti-inflation special available this week-end is quarter-inch plywood at $1.98 per sheet. This is probably the lowest price in the nation today for this versatile all-purpose material.

Just how does Angels manage to keep selling lumber and building material at these prices? I asked this same question to Angels President Sidney Kline.

He explained that Angels can consistently undersell competition because of its "tremendous volume." "We buy for less, and we sell for less," Sid declared. Through volume contracts, and direct mill purchasing, we control our retail prices.

A great deal of the lumber on sale today was contracted for one, two, and even three years ago. By obligating ourselves for millions of board feet, perhaps the entire annual production from a mill, we guarantee our customers the lowest prices anywhere, he emphasized.

Angels is much more than just a lumber yard and source of building material. It is a complete home improvement center with all the allied lines, including paint, electrical, plumbing, tools, hardware, nursery items, sporting goods, and housewares.

The same volume principles apply to all these departments, and that is why Angels sells consistently for less.

Angels regular retail advertising appears every week in this newspaper. Watch for it and compare prices and quality. Visit your nearest Angels location and convince yourself. One visit should do it.

All-States Queen Takes S.F. Trip

All-States Queen, Miss Conda Kopasz, flew from Ontario International airport to San Francisco on Friday, Sept. 5.

Miss Kopasz was a guest of PSA Airlines and was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Josephine Kopasz, on this trip. They were to stay in San Francisco three days and to be given tours of the city through courtesy of Greyline bus company.

This trip was one of the prizes presented to Miss Kopasz as a result of her honor in being chosen the All-States Queen.

KEYHOLE

WASHINGTON—Word here is that President Nixon is planning a full-blown speaking tour of GOP functions this fall for Vice President Spiro Agnew, an exposure that hopefully will give him Bob Taft's old title of "Mr. Republican."

DETROIT—This city's mayoralty contest offers the unusual spectacle of a white law and order candidate, Sheriff Roman Gribbs, running as strong favorite among black citizens over moderate Negro County Auditor Richard Austin, because of Gribbs' fair handling of both races. Fact that he has a black under-sheriff doesn't hurt, either.

BOSTON—Opposition to Republican plans to more or less concede the senatorial race to Teddy Kennedy seems to be growing, with some influential GOP wheels recommending an as yet undiscovered senior citizen with impeccable civic and church reputation but no previous political experience.

Stove Catches Fire, A-L Woman Burned

ALTA LOMA — A 61-year-old woman was severely burned last week when her kitchen stove caught fire and flared out of control. Firemen found her unconscious on the floor.

Philomene Castillo of 8205 Beechwood dr. was reported in poor condition in the intensive care ward of San Antonio Community hospital in Upland. Sheriff's Deputy Carl Firth said Mrs. Castillo suffered second- and third-degree burns on her chest. She also suffered a cut chest and possible seared lungs from smoke inhalation, Firth said.

Alta Loma Fire Chief Eugene Billings said volunteer fireman Richard F. Nelson suffered a severed artery on his hand from a sliding glass door. The wound required five stitches.

Billings and Nelson were the first to arrive at the fire after a neighbor called at 10:23 p.m. Billings attacked the flames crackling out the kitchen window with a hose rigged to a pumper on his pickup truck, while Nelson used a garden hose.

As soon as the first of two engines arrived, firemen put on breathing gear and went into the house.

where they found Mrs. Castillo slumped on the floor near the front door. She was unconscious when taken from the home but started to revive before the ambulance arrived, but was still incoherent and given oxygen, Billings said.

If you want it - You can bet - We have it - If you have it - Don't want it - We can sell it.

Local CLASSIFIED

Selling is more than a sale - it's a service! That's the motto of Marge Carter, director of the special Classified Ads for this newspaper.

Why does our blonde and bubbly Miss Carter say selling is service - because only through the Classified Ads can the "little guy" find a buyer - or what he needs to buy. More than any other section of your wonderful newspaper, Classified Ads bring about a people-to-people program - where the PROFIT is in YOUR pocket - and that old adage is switched to "I can get it for you LESS than wholesale."

Miss Carter has learned every trick to make every tiny ad stand out - she combines clever copy with flawless art - and backs it all up with over a decade of experience.

ASSISTING ON THE PLAYGROUND -- Connie Consuelo Muro, shown in center above, has been working during the summer months under the EY(OA) program. She has assisted in crafts and games.

OH, HAPPY DAYS ARE HERE! For James Handy Jr., United States Navy, it was perhaps the happiest day of his life last week, when he sat behind the wheel of his brand new 1970 Ford Mustang. He is shown above with Bruce Harris, Liberty Ford salesman, who helped Handy make the selection. Handy is stationed at Imperial Beach, Calif., and will keep his car on the U. S. Naval Base there. His home town is Hot Springs, South Dakota.

FAIR RADIO -- For the first time in Cal Poly history, the school radio, Station KCPK, is doing daily, live, remote shows from the Pomona Fair from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. Bill Carlquist, general manager; Keith Lew, assistant chief engineer; and Bruce Plasse, Fair coordinator, discuss KCPK's programming. The station will feature music and interviews.

Mountain Weekend Retreat

La Verne college's 160 freshmen attended an orientation into college life at La Verne Camp near Jenks Lake in the San Bernardino mountains this past weekend.

Dwight Hanawalt, Dean of Students, commented, "this provides an opportunity for freshmen to make friends and become involved in the meaning of college for them by the time the retreat is over." Stated Dan Long, Director of Student Orientation, "Student morale is gained individually and as a class."

Upon arrival, President Leonard B. Newcomer addressed the group on the college's educational master plan, and a welcome by Student Body President Joel Davison followed.

Booklets for discussion material were distributed and study groups of 10 freshmen, a student leader, and a faculty member, encountered the material in three separate time blocks during the two days.

Included in discussion material was the La Verne College Educational Master Plan, Target 1980; "A Bold Plan for Peace" by George B. Leonard (reprinted from LOOK magazine); "A Call for Uncommon Education" by John F. Olson; and excerpts from the book "Schools Without Failure" by William Glasser.

Obituary

Dr. Vincent Edward Wagner, 68, a former Pomona Valley resident, died last Sunday in Sacramento after a short illness.

Dr. Wagner practiced medicine in LaVerne, San Dimas and Pomona from 1935 until 1942. Dr. Wagner had offices in all three of the communities with his wife, Dr. Grace St. Clair Wagner.

His nephews are Dr. Donald St. Clair and Dr. Eugene St. Clair of LaVerne.

Dr. Wagner was born July 29, 1901, in San Jose. He was the son of medical missionaries. He was a graduate of the USC Medical School.

Prior to his practice in the Pomona Valley, Dr. and Mrs. Wagner were sent as medical missionaries to China where they served for 5 1/2 years. They were sponsored by members of the Pilgrim Congregational Church.

He served as a medical officer during World War II and received recognition for his efforts to establish a military government hospital to care for civilian refugees in Okinawa. He remained in the Navy for 16 years, retiring in 1958.

He continued practice in the Oakland area until 1966.

In addition to his widow, Dr. Wagner is survived by two sons, Dr. Roy S. Wagner of Napa and David E. Wagner of Stockton; a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Knoderer of Illinois; two brothers, Hubert H. Wagner of San Jose and Clarence W. Wagner of Claremont; and 12 grandchildren.

Memorial services were conducted Wednesday at the Pioneer Congregational Church in Sacramento at 11 a.m., with the Rev. Robert Carlson, pastor, officiating.

Contributions may be made to the American Heart Association.

Sex Education Will Invoke Many Arguments

Peter F. Schabaram
Forty-ninth Assembly
District

Because of a bill recently signed into law by the governor, many mothers of California school children will have more than a passing interest in at least one area of the child's learning: sex education.

Basically, the new law provides that parents or guardians must be notified in advance before sex or "family life" education material is used in any public school class. They also must have the opportunity to inspect such material before it is used in the classroom.

In addition, the new law provides that parents may excuse their child from sex education classes by written request if they find the methods, materials, or even the basic concept of sex education objectionable. Conversely, the law would also prohibit school boards from forcing any child to attend classes where human reproductive organs and their functions and processes are illustrated or discussed.

The sex education question was debated extensively in both houses of the legislature during the last session, and the result is this new law, an admitted compromise between the faction on one hand who would put no statutory restriction upon the teaching of sex education except at the local level, and that faction at the other end of the scale who would bar any kind of sex instruction in the public schools.

As you might imagine, there are as many different arguments on the merits and demerits of sex education as there are interested parents. Opponents of such programs seem to be the most vocal, and claim that such goings-on in the schools will be detrimental to children rather than benefitting them. They cite moral, scientific, and educational questions which make family life education objectionable, and contend that knowledgeable parents have every right to be distributed over the seeming stampede to get such programs started on the local level.

Proponents of sex education programs are steadfast in their support of the concept that such programs are healthy and necessary. They say it must be recognized that children are going to find out about sex—the only question is where and how. A ban on sex education perpetuates the system of children finding out about sex in ways which increase apprehension and spread misinformation, they claim, and continues the puritanical approach that caused what they claim is the whole "mess" in the first place.

The question of morality ranks high as a leading issue involved. In considering any legislation in this field, we lawmakers are required to weigh the desirability of our children being well informed and well adjusted young adults against the possibility of invading the sanctity of the home and overriding parental discretion.

Not everyone will be pleased with the newly-signed law now waiting out the constitutional time limit to become effective. The view expressed by those discussing sex education are invariably in the extreme: either they think it's a great idea, or are ready to take on the whole school board for even suggesting such a thing be taught in the public schools.

But the law will be a start. It will mandate those school districts who choose to start a responsible program to accept comments and advice from interested parents and to tailor-make such a presentation to the tastes of the community.

Record Enrollment At CP

A record enrollment of 7,500 students is expected for the fall quarter at California State Polytechnic College, Kellogg-Voorhis, Pomona.

Of these students, 1,200 will live in the campus' six residence halls.

Serving the increased enrollment will be an estimated 900 faculty and staff members of the College's general staff and five schools: agriculture, arts, engineering, business administration, and science.

Cal Poly will institute the first of 15 master's degree programs this fall. The initial master's program will be offered in biological sciences.

For the first time in its 30-year history, the college will offer B.A. degrees. Bachelor of arts programs in political science, English and history were inaugurated this summer, but will move into full operation during fall quarter.

Three other new majors will also be offered this fall. These include bachelor of science programs in communication arts, social services and soil science.

A new $1.8 million agricultural classroom addition is rising to meet expanding needs of the School of Agriculture. The building will contain eight laboratories for environmental design, three laboratories for foods and nutrition and two for soil science. There will also be a lecture room, support facilities, and faculty offices in the building.

In addition to the agricultural classroom addition, working drawings are being completed for Cal Poly's $7 million addition to the science building.

Groundbreaking for Kellogg West, the college's $3 million center for continuing education, will be held early in the fall quarter.

County Passes Cancer Drive Goal By $11,000

The San Bernardino County Branch of the American Cancer Society announced that it had once again exceeded its goal in 1969 fund raising efforts.

County Crusade Chairman Alden Reid put the current unofficial count at $196,584, more than $11,000 higher than the initial goal of $185,000.

He said that goal had been passed within 90 days of the start of the annual Cancer Crusade in April. Donations included $60,900 from the residential campaign; $25,668 from businesses, professional groups and foundations; $55,988 from AID and employee groups; $20,196 from military installations; $6,966 from special events; $22,369 in memorials; $1,304 from clubs and organizations and $3,189 from Christmas cards, state and national credits.

"More than $4,000 in legacies should boost our final total to $200,000," Reid added.

He said that 56 of the 66 communities in the county went over their quotas this year.

Completing his second year as county crusade chairman, Reid praised the society's 7,303 volunteers for their part in the successful fund drive.

He said their efforts had made the San Bernardino County Branch first in the state on a percentage basis.

Final figures on the crusade will be announced at the ACS annual meeting Sept. 23 at Arrowhead Country Club in San Bernardino.
